

CONNECT WITH US

The Men's Story Project

www.mensstoryproject.org

@mensstoryproj

#MensStoryProject

THE MEN'S STORY PROJECT
building strength, creating peace

HeForShe McGill

www.facebook.com/HeForSheMcGill

@heforshemcgill

#HeForShe

The Institute for Gender, Sexuality and Feminist Studies (IGSF)

<https://www.mcgill.ca/igsf/>

@igsf.mcgill

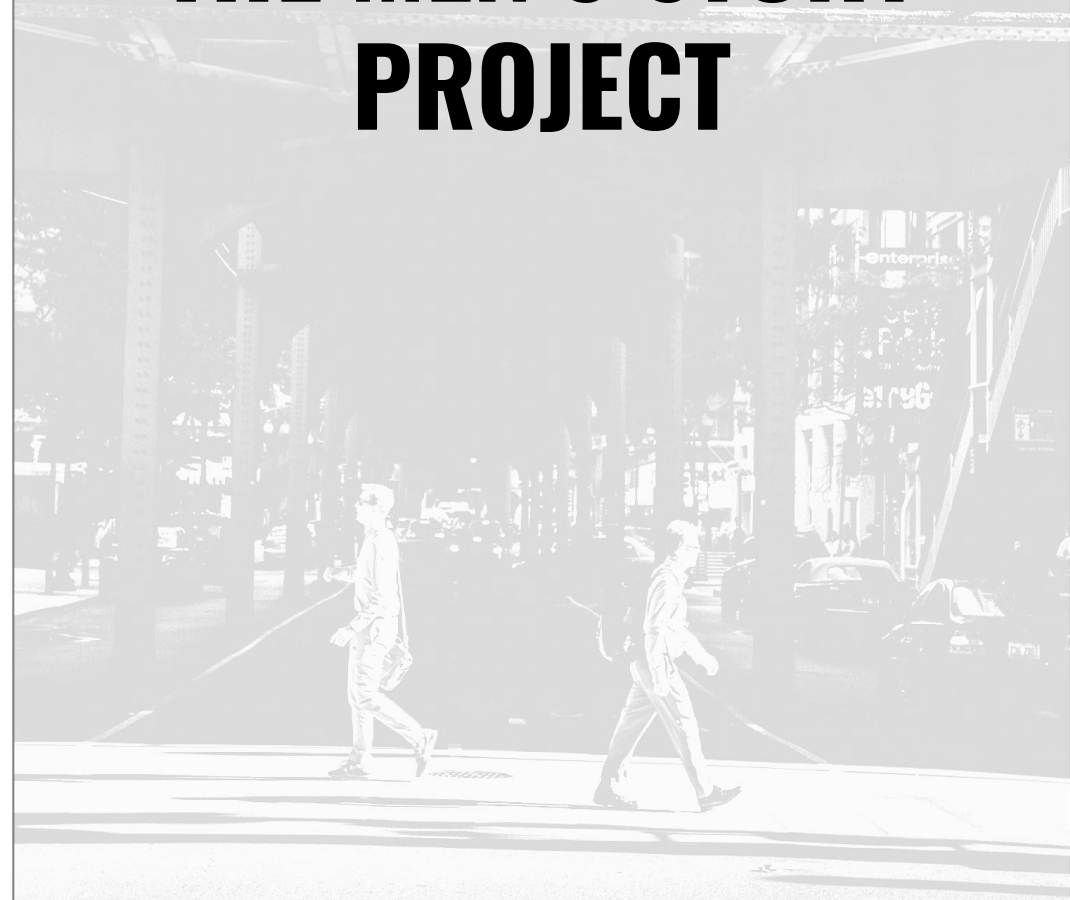

Thank you for attending!

PRESENT

THE MEN'S STORY PROJECT

THE PRESENTERS

Tom Zhai

Untitled

Tom will speak of his journey from being bullied in middle school to finding both empowerment and peace in bodybuilding while remaining truthful to his 'femininity' and 'masculinity' as a Chinese gay male.

Younes Boubekour

'A dialogue between two men: what it means to be a man'

Younes' piece involves a "hyper-masculine" man who reluctantly opens up to his friend about his struggles to share his feelings and his fear of being seen as less of a man by not adhering to male stereotypes. He learns that as people we are all much more alike than different.

Karim Elmallakh

'Requiem for a party of one, and a few other people.'

Karim is presenting on his experience coming out, and dealing with everything that came after. From relationships, internal struggles, different people, and how he has navigated it all since.

CREDITS

Thank you to MainLine Theatre and our co-sponsors for making this event possible!

ΔKE

jack.org
McGill
Students'
Chapter of Jack.org

players' theatre

OSVRSE

PROGRAM

Resource and Action Fair

7 PM

Free refreshments provided and food available for purchase.

Presentations begin

8 PM

Tom's presentation

Younes' presentation

Karim's presentation

Videos:

Hawk Newsome - Nuyorican Poets Cafe

Amir Rabiya - UC Berkeley, "The Gathering"

Discussion

9 PM

Post-Presentation Mixer

9:45 PM

Free refreshments provided.